Just A Word...

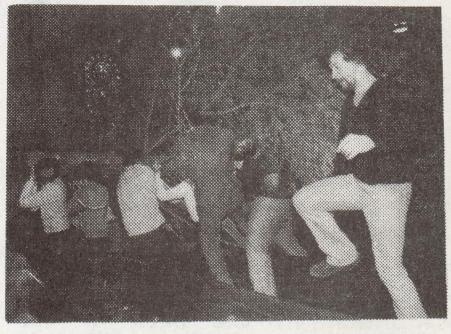
by Fr. Harvey

Many stories have been told about a Christmas tree. Many legends also exist. The celebration of Christmastide here at St. John's is more than just a story and certainly more than a legend. The following pictures taken and processed by Skip Diegel capture the spirit of Christmas ala St. John's - people believing together, working together and celebrating together because of One who came in flesh on the first Christmas Day.

A thirty-five year old blue spruce became the center of attention as we began to prepare decorations for Christmas Day. Charles and Dorothy Stein donated the beautiful tree from their property on Sherman Street. Two other offers were also received from the Lucas and Walton families. There is always next year!

The tree was cut on Saturday morning. Even though Dave Wheeler was recently released from a hospital, he managed to wield the power saw and provided a truck for transporting the Christmas tree. And even though the tree's length outdistanced our 50 foot tape rule, three young men of our parish could be heard crying, "Don't cut any more off. We're gonna have a toothpick!" as the task of loading the tree became weighty reality to those slightly "older."

Having been cut on Saturday, the tree rested and so did we until Sunday afternoon when the solemn procession arrived at the doors of the church. "It will never fit through the doors," the unbelievers began to mutter. "We've done it before and we'll do it again," was the echo.



Some groaned and others danced as the mighty tree was processed up the main aisle of the church.

While the solemn entrance was taking place, others were busy readying wreaths, and ribbons and of course, plenty of brooms. A meal was being prepared in the church hall for appetites growing stronger in the church upstairs. The beautiful Christmas banners, designed and executed by Jeff and Ellen Katke and Gilda Heider were receiving finishing touches in the school lobby, while the younger set of parishioners rehearsed for the Christmas Eve Children's Mass and made decorations for the tree in the center lobby.

Meanwhile, the "featured" attraction was being held high over and around the altar as it neared its destination in the back of the sanctuary. Shoulders were beginning to sag. Sweat on many brows told the strain a Christmas tree could cause. Was this Good Friday or Christmas?

With the procession past, others were able to resume their tasks of draping the roping in the nave of the church and hanging swatches of cedar and holly on a pillar which silently, yet forcefully, supports tons of weight throughout the year in our beautiful Romanesque church.

The mighty blue spruce stands for all to enjoy. Two smaller trees donated by the Gillman family, took positions of honor on either side of the Nativity scene to help tell us once more that God so loves each of us that He sent His only Son!

Catholic Social Services of Washtenaw County

Good Samaritan Annual Membership Program

Envelopes for the Good Samaritan Annual Membership Program in behalf of Catholic Social Services have been made available. If you have not made your contribution, please do so today. If you are not able to do so today, please mail your contribution to Catholic Social Services, 117 North Division Street, Ann Arbor, MI 48108.

How are your dollars used by Catholic Social Services? Your dollars help pay for the skilled professional workers who do the counseling and placement for the families who continually ask for help from the Agency. And for the time these workers spend in trying to obtain additional help from other resources in the community. Your dollars also help pay for the cost of maintaining close to 130 children in Agency foster homes throughout the year. Your dollars also pay to enable the Agency to place children in adoptive homes - many of whom are older or handicapped in some way.

The kind of help that Catholic Social Services provides is not an "8 to 5" job. A crisis can happen anytime and the Agency is prepared around the clock to help with emergencies. Be a Good Samaritan! Help Catholic Social Services help others!

Liturgically Speaking...

Fr. Jim Burns

"And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night." This gospel scene for Christmas is best illustrated by the use in our homes and churches of the traditional nativity creche. No doubt it was that particular scripture text which inspired Francis of Assisi in 1223 to begin our venerable custom of putting up cribs in the home at this time of year. According to an article in the New Catholic Encyclopedia "The use of the crib in church and home in Bethlehem and its reproduction in St. Mary Major. The popular custom was introduced by St. Francis in 1223."

Our church is now beautifully and tastefully decorated for our celebration of the Nativity, and rightfully, one of the nicest 'decorations' is the Christmas Creche. Children are easily attracted to this scene; for them Jesus is made small so that these youngsters can have an enlarged view and greater understanding of what it means when we say: The Word became flesh and dwells among us. For them the birth of the Savior is more real, and quite intelligible - a definite aid to their growth in the Faith. Where children are being raised in our many parish homes, this one scene deserves special attention, even more than a picture of jolly old Santa or the prettiest of Christmas trees. The Church has encouraged us to use artistic settings that bring out in us an admiration for God's works in this world, thus leading us on to praise Him. May the sight of the crib do just that.

New Life In Christ

Todd Joseph Foddrill, son of Samuel J. and Susan (DeWitt) Foddrill, 529 Kennedy, received the promise of eternal life in Jesus Christ when he was baptized by Fr. Harvey on Saturday, December 18, 1976. Todd's godparents are David Burke and Nancy DeWitt.

We welcome Todd and extend our pledge to assist the parents and godparents in sharing Christian faith with him.

In The Peace Of Christ

Verna Thorp, age 61, died on Saturday, December 18, 1976. Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated on Tuesday, December 21, 1976 by Fr. Harvey. Burial followed in our parish cemetery.

Mrs. Thorp is survived by her husband, Gordon; one son, Douglas of Florida and one daughter, Mrs. Robert (Maria) Stabnau, recently married here. Two grandchildren also survive along with three brothers, Daniel, Merle and Earl Vasher; two sisters, Mrs. Harold (Eleanor) Durham of this parish and Mrs. Mary Carr of Snover.

May the hope of eternal life fulfill the faith by which she lived.

Special Thanks...

...To Gene Butman, Gene Butman Ford Sales and to Barney Hughes, Hughes Real Estate, for sponsoring the radio broadcast of Christmas Midnight Mass from our church over station WPAG, 107 FM. We appreciate the generosity of these two parishioners in helping make possible along with Wayne Adair from the radio station, the broadcast of Midnight Mass for our local area.

Intercessory Prayer

"For a child is born to us, a son is given to us;
Upon his shoulder dominion rests.
They name him Wonder-Counselor, God-Hero, Father-Forever, Prince of Peace."

Lord you have brought us abundant joy and great rejoicing during this joyful season.

Therefore we pray for:

Our St. John's Parish Team.

For the sick, especially Vivian Rominski, Elsie Paffel, Theresa White, Phyllis Gracie and for those not mentioned.

For the aged and the lonely

For a safe trip for those who are travelling.

For those who have fallen away from God.

For our children, may they experience a joyful and blessed Christmas vacation.

For moms and dads for the spirit of unity in all families.

Lord, Jesus, at the time of your birth people made excuses that there was no room in their homes for you. Lord, we make room for your coming in our hearts; come fill our hearts and lives with your peace and joy.

Praise God,
Dave Rocha

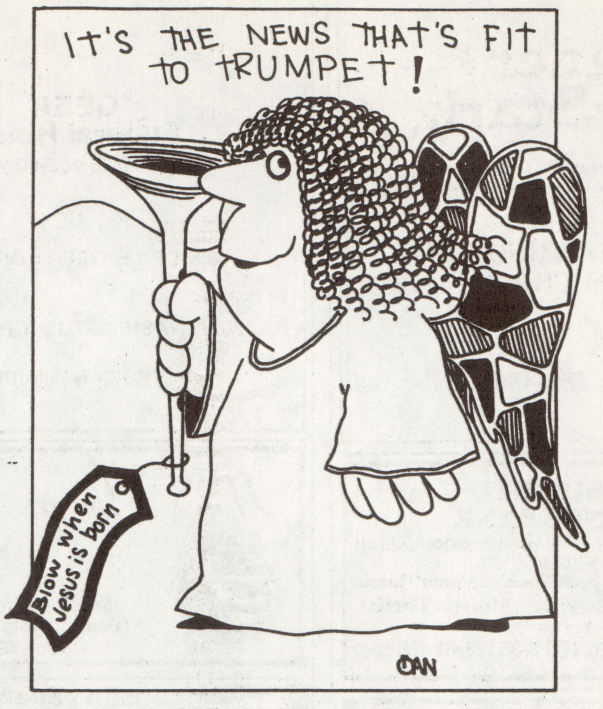
There is always a "letdown" the day after Christmas. That's normal enough. But we hope there will be no "letdown" in the generosity of our people - particularly as shown these past few weeks. God bless you for seeing the need for giving.



CHRISTMAS/FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

Go tell it on the mountain and sing it in the shower,
blow the trumpet, beat the kettledrum,
let banners float from every tower;
Christ is born today, today,
and saves us by his power!
